A Springboro woman who sexually abused a child under 10 years of age and video recorded the act was sentenced to 15 years in prison.

Today Tanai D. Fortman, 32, pled guilty to Rape and Pandering Sexually Oriented Matter Involving a Minor and was sentenced to fifteen years in prison by Judge James Flannery in the Warren County Court of Common Pleas.

The abuse occurred during the month of June at the woman's home in Springboro. The woman's boyfriend discovered the video and alerted Springboro Police. Warren County Prosecutor David Fornshell complimented Detective Tom Faulkner of the Springboro Police Department, Detective Robb White of the Lebanon Police Department, and Assistant Prosecutor Travis Vieux for their work on the case.
