Stephen Kinsey, 46, of Springboro, Ohio, was sentenced today to 36 months in prison and registered a Tier II sex offender by Warren County Common Pleas Court Judge Timothy N. Tepe. In May, Kinsey pled guilty to one count of gross sexual imposition, a felony of the 3rd degree, for sexually assaulting an 11 year old family friend.

On January 12, 2018, the victim was assisting Kinsey's family with moving. When Kinsey drove the victim to drop off boxes at the new home, he sexually assaulted her. The victim was able to get away from Kinsey and lock herself in a bathroom. There, she tried to call 911 from her iPod, but was unable to connect. Kinsey drove the victim back to the old house where she disclosed what had happened to other adults in the home.

Warren County Prosecutor David P. Fornshell commended Det. Dustin Christian of the Springboro Police Department, Assistant Prosecutor Carrie Heisele, Director of Victim Witness Services Jessi Flint, and Legal Assistant Kathy Fink for their work on the case.
