IMPORTANT:

NAME: _____
CASE #: _____

Based on an initial review of your current charges and your criminal history, you may be qualified to participate in the Warren County Prosecutorial Diversion Program. Your full eligibility cannot be assessed until the process below is completed.

Please review this packet with your defense attorney, as this is just one option that may be available to you.

- An Initial Screening Interview must be scheduled with the Diversion Officer within 7 days of receipt of this packet (or 7 days after initial referral to program). The Interview must then be completed within 7 days following the phone call (total of 14 days from packet receipt / referral).
- The Initial Screening Interview will take between 2 – 3 hours and will contain an in-depth interview, budget analysis, detailed review of the application and the rules of supervision, along with an overview of the program.
- Following the Initial Screening Interview and review of the application packet, you will be advised by the Prosecutors office if your application has been granted or denied. This notification will be no sooner than 14 days following your Initial Interview.
