Sidney Logsdon recently received the “Outstanding Team Member Award” from Warren County Prosecutor David P. Fornshell. The award is based on nominations from members of the Warren County Prosecutor’s Office, and is given to the employee who exhibits outstanding commitment to their colleagues while carrying out the ideals and principles of the Prosecutor’s Office. Sidney has worked as a Legal Assistant for the Prosecutor’s Office since 2022.

Sidney’s co-workers included some of the following comments about her in their nominations:

“Although one of our newer employees, Sidney has caught on and learned the job quickly. She is always ready, willing, and able to help at any time. Most importantly, Sidney is always happy and cheerful. She always greets you with a smile and makes our office a happier place to work. When a co-worker is not available, she always volunteers to do anything possible to be helpful. If she is not the “Employee of the Year”, you should designate her as the Most Cheerful of the Year.”

“Working beside Sidney every day gives me insight into not only the work she does, but also the amazing person she is to everyone. We work closely together on case intake and have been able to establish a wonderful team system. We have good communication and can easily work through the cases together, usually while laughing. I know I can count on her and when she says she will do something, I know that it will get done. She always offers to help; in whatever way someone may need. If another legal assistant is out, she will volunteer to stay late or cover the front.

Sidney is kind to everyone. She smiles and asks coworkers how they are doing, what their plans are for weekends, and about their families. I believe she genuinely cares about the answer. She speaks politely to people on the phone, even when they annoy her. I have only heard people say nice things about Sidney and it is obvious that people enjoy working with her. Even though she hasn’t been here for years and years, she picks things up quickly and has continuously taken on more responsibility or projects. I am happy to work beside her and believe that she is an asset to the office.”

“Sidney has been a great addition to the Office. She is a quick learner and is always willing to help pitch in wherever necessary. She has been one of the legal assistants that has significantly reduced the amount of time that it takes for a case to move from the case intake list to being assigned to an attorney/investigator. She is organized and detail-oriented, which makes her great at her job. She is also one of the kindest people in the office. Her only flaw is believing that Travis Kelce is good for Taylor Swift, but I guess no one can be perfect...”

“Sidney has been a fantastic addition to the Office! Her temperament and her willingness to help EVERYONE in the Office is appreciated by all who interact with her. Sidney is the newest and youngest legal assistant in the Office, however, when she joined our team, she did not hesitate to jump right in and get to work. She has taken on a significant workload (she has the most attorneys assigned to her), she manages Travis (a full-time job in and of itself), and yet she always finds time to help with additional projects that need undertaken to improve the efficiency of the Office. I have myself been asked -- and I have also witnessed Sidney ask -- anyone that walks by her desk if she can be of assistance --- and this is for attorneys that she is not assigned to. Sidney does not hesitate to help out ANY member of our Office and she does so with a smile on her face! I truly appreciate the positive attitude that she brings to work every single day!”

“In the short time that Sidney has been with the office, I believe she has had a significant impact. She is a quick learner and a hard worker. She is very efficient and accomplishes tasks well in advance of any deadline. If she doesn’t know the answer to a question or how to do something, she is proactive in figuring it out. She also always has a smile on her face. She is always happy and is willing to lend a helping hand to anyone even if it’s not technically her responsibility. She has such a positive attitude, and it lifts those around her.”

“Sidney is the kindest soul in the office and is always willing to be flexible to meet the needs of her team or the Office. She rarely ever says no if asked to assist, answer questions, or stay late if needed. Not only does Sidney have the kindest smile, but she is also always willing to go above and beyond for anyone who needs it, even if she is in the middle of doing something. Sidney has always been very proactive and forward thinking when it comes to efficiency of how the workflow process works. Sidney also goes above and beyond her daily duties to seek additional responsibility and assisted in getting the case intake worklist to zero twice this year.”

“Sidney has been a wonderful addition to the office. She is a hard worker and has picked up the necessary skills for her job in a short time. She is always willing to help with anything and always does so with a smile. She is there every morning with a warm greeting to start the day off on a positive note.”

“As one of our newer legal assistants, I am continually impressed by Sidney’s ability to grow and stay flexible to our ever-changing processes. Sidney not only covers half of our intake, but this year she kindly volunteered the assignment of an additional APA to her already growing caseload. And she still manages to cover, train, and support whatever extra tasks arise. I am truly impressed by Sidney.

Sidney was also instrumental in getting our new media management project moving and assisted all of the other legal assistants with clean up and reorganization during that project. She speaks kindly of others, tries her best, and helps wherever needed. I cannot think of an individual more deserving of recognition for her efforts this year and who truly stand out for her teamwork.”
