Delena Clever, 48, of Maineville, Ohio, pled guilty yesterday to contributing to the delinquency of a minor, a misdemeanor of the first degree; and sexual imposition, a misdemeanor of the third degree, in front of Warren County Common Pleas Court Juvenile Division Judge Joseph W. Kirby.

In August 2018, Clever, a substitute nurse in both the Little Miami and Kings Local School Districts at the time, sent a text message to a male student informing him she was intoxicated and asked him to drive her around. Clever directed the student to a hotel in Deerfield Township where she had rented a room. While there, Clever made several sexual advances towards the student and offered him alcohol and marihuana. The student refused and told Clever he wanted to go home. While driving back, Clever reached over and touched the student's genitals over his clothing.

Judge Kirby immediately sentenced Clever to 60 days in the Warren County Jail and registered her as a Tier I sex offender.

"Clever is lucky that the underage student ultimately rebuffed her sexual advances, otherwise she would find herself in a prison cell instead of spending local time in the county jail," said Warren County Prosecutor David P. Fornshell.

Fornshell commended Sgt. Brian Hounshell, Detective Nick Behymer, and Deputy Jonathan Downs of the Warren County Sheriff's Office, Assistant Prosecutor Julie Kraft, Victim Witness Coordinator Lauren May, and Legal Assistant Jaclyn Zaczek for their work on the case.
